Your participation requires a commitment to not only to Teen Court, but also your school and your peers. This commitment includes:

- * Attending Teen Court Hearings at the times and places
- * Attending training sessions
- * Demonstrating the ability to treat each case impartially, with objectivity and without prejudice
- * Maintaining absolute confidentiality and courtroom behavior- quiet, respectful ect.
- * Participating for one school year but not being limited to that year
- * Accepting personal responsibility for actions while a member of Teen Court.

If the Teen Court Coordinator considers your behavior unacceptable, your parents will be contacted and, you could be dismissed as a volunteer.

- * DRESS PROFESSIONALLY AT ALL TIMES- no jeans, t-shirts, shorts, sneakers, flip flops.

For Parents/Guardians:

Your teen's involvement in Teen Court may require some involvement on your part. It may require that transportation be made at the scheduled times or accessibility to the internet and a location where privacy and be maintained. If you have transportation issues, Teen Court may be able to assist in getting your student to and from Teen Court.

I give permission for _____ to receive training as a Teen Court participant. I will also support my teen's participation in the program by helping ensure that they honor their commitment and responsibility (as outlined above) to the Teen Court program. Furthermore, I give my consent for my youth's photograph and/or likeness to be used by Communities in Schools for publicity and/or training materials.
